ORAL JUDGEMENT (Per S.D. Dave J.)

We have heard learned counsel Mr. S.A. Mehta for the learned counsel Mr.S.I. Nanavati for the petitioner and learned government counsel Mr. K.M. Mehta. Upon hearing the learned counsels it appears that looking to the challenge posed in the petition and looking to the passage of time, the present proceedings have become infructuous, and they require to be disposed of as such. We order accordingly. The present petition stands disposed. Rule shall stand discharged with no order as to costs.

It appears that while admitting the petition it has been directed that the the Deputy Conservator of Forests, Rajpipla should hold the necessary inquiry in the matter. The ultimate orders passed by the said authority shall not be affected by the disposal of the present petition.
